The Branson-Ackland Scholarship is available to new and current students who wish to complete their HSC at Bishop Druitt College and who wish to pursue further studies in the fields of language arts or humanities.

Demonstrated high achievement in Year 9 and/or Year 10 English and History and a strong school report are prerequisites for this scholarship. It is expected that recipients will study English Advanced with one or more of the college's Human Society and Its Environment or Languages courses, including in their HSC year.

Specific conditions considered in the annual review include the following:

- Students are expected to participate in and achieve ongoing high standards in the scholarship fields, as at the time of entry.
- Students are expected to support clubs and competitions, and mentor other students in this field of study.

The college wishes to thank Mr Victor Branson and his wife Mrs Margaret Ackland for their generosity in providing this scholarship. Mr Branson was the foundation Principal at Bishop Druitt College.
